Foreword

I realize that, when you first receive this yearbook, the only pictures you are really interested in are of yourself, your friends, and any activity or club in which you participated. Very little regard is given to campus shots, pictures of your profs, or anything as dull as the "foreword."

Someday, though, when your college life is but a very beautiful and hazy memory, and you have reached the autumn of your life, you can look back upon this book and it will truly be "A Golden Book of Memories."

Susan Petersen, editor.

MORRILL HALL . . . last of the "old timers", although it's the oldest, it still remains the dearest in our hearts.

4 Beloved brick walk, worn by the tread of many feet.

The "quad", where Indian Summer loiters on the quiet

A more recent addition to the campus is the Sarah Hamilton Fleischmann School of Home Economics. After long years of service will its' fate be the same as that of Stewart Hall?

Leafy shadows quiver under the sun's bright rays, as we take a break from studying on lazy September days.

"Man Must Know"

Those words of beloved poet Carl Sandburg, spoken last year at the University of Nevada commencement, should be our guide for the future.

We leave a decade when to call a man an "egghead" was to insult him, when many suspected intellectual excellence, when education was woefully neglected, when an instructor risked the epithet of "subversive" when he dared voice an original thought.

We enter the decade of the 60's, where the threat of an alien ideology, emphasized by foreign successes in rocketry, has restored education to its rightful place of prominence in the American way of life.

The flash of the Sputnik has America more fully aware of the value of higher education. Our citizens realize the achievements of tomorrow are based on the schooling of today.

Nevadans are pleased with their University, its reputation and progress.

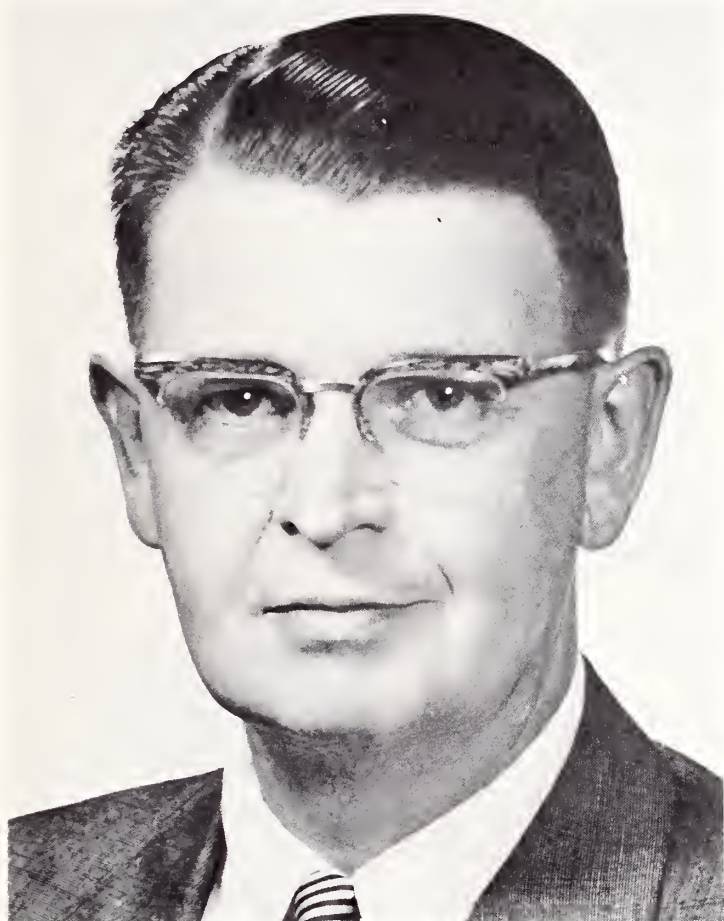

The past several months have seen a giant facelifting of a proud old institution on the Reno campus, as thousands of dollars have been spent for expansion. At the branch campus in Las Vegas, a massive building program continues, transforming what was once a barren desert into an attractive, bustling center of education.

The University of Nevada faces the future with a sparkling new appearance. We are proud of this "new look", which reflects the great economic and population expansion of the state. We are also proud of the modern spirit of freedom of academic thought, which has made much of this transformation possible.

The demand for higher learning becomes annually greater. I am certain our citizens, our lawmakers and our educators will continue to work together to insure Nevada meets that demand.

GRANT SAWYER
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NEVADA

Guiding Our Growth

The University has experienced another year of continued growth on both its campuses. Most apparent has been our physical growth, as evidenced by increased enrollments, totalling thirty percent in two years, and by the impressive number of new buildings under construction, climaxed by the great Noble H. Getchell Library.

The new Library in itself symbolizes an even more important aspect of the University's growth, that in intellectual stature. A new seriousness of purpose characterizes the University today, for this is truly an era of accent on excellence. This is not to say that University life will not and should not continue to provide a healthy amount of fun and relaxation, of social and extra-curricular activity. Rather it means that we are giving dominant emphasis to the basic purposes and concerns of the University. Above all, we are a community of scholars—students and faculty — who join in a mutual adventure of the mind and spirit.

The issues during the year which have occupied student government, and students generally, reflect this attitude. Discussions in student meeting and in the student newspaper have been vigorous and spirited, with a healthy quantity of disagreement. Constructive disagreement leads to clarification and understanding of the issues involved — and this is of primary importance.

Renewed devotion to the cause of learning, of human understanding, of human freedom and dignity, will enable us best to do our part to strengthen ourselves and our country for these times of world crisis, and for the conflict in which we shall continue to be involved for many years to come, a conflict which in the ultimate analysis is a struggle to capture the minds of men.

Head Coach . . . Richard Trachock

After 10 highly successful years at the helm of the Reno High Huskies, Coach Trachock returned this year to Nevada, his alma mater, as head coach of the Wolfpack. Trachock is no stranger to pack followers; he is remembered as a star halfback for the brilliant Wolfpack teams of the late 1940s.

Line Coach . . . Floyd Edsall

Coach Edsall is also a new addition to the Nevada coaching staff; following tenures at Elko and Sparks high schools. A great deal of the credit for this year's team's success is due Edsall for turning out one of the strongest lines in Nevada gridiron history.

End Coach . . . Richard Dankworth

Coach Dankworth in his fourth year as assistant pack mentor, successfully molded his ends into a corps of outstanding receivers and strong defenders.

First Row . . . (1 to r) . . . O. Harris, H. Culbert, S. Glover, J. Tobin, F. Nenzel, M. Thompson, G. Lemich, R. Peck, R. Hunter, C. Quilici, R. Lemon; Second Row . . . D. Haines, R. Atkinson, W. Green, R. McGinnis, O. Thomas, A. Curtis.

After dropping a last minute decision to Western Colorado in the season opener, the Wolfpack rebounded to win three straight from Pepperdine, Chico State, and the California Aggies. San Francisco State's undefeated Gators exploded in the second half and went on to defeat the Pack 30-14 before an immense Homecoming crowd. Crippled by the many injuries suffered in the San Francisco game, the Pack went on to defeat Sacramento State; but dropped the season finale to tough Humboldt State at Arcata, California.

Coach Trachock and his associates combined a brilliant array of young inexperienced talent with seasoned veterans and molded them into a tough well-balanced ball club which has brought Nevada its first winning season in over a decade. If this season is an indication of things to come, and we are sure it is, the Nevada football horizon looks bright and victorious.

Basketball

Although the 1959-1960 basketball season was not one of the most successful years in Nevada history, it proved to be a very exciting one. The Pack was hampered by the lack of height and rebound strength. Bright spot of the year, was the 88 to 85 upset victory over highly touted Loyola.

Coach Jack Spencer took over the post of head basketball coach this year. He is a graduate of the University of Iowa, and captained the Hawkeye cagers in 1945 when they won the Big Ten Championship. After playing one year of professional basketball, Spencer took over as head coach of basketball and baseball at Iowa Wesleyan. Now at Nevada, he is a welcome addition to the coaching staff.

Boxing

Overall, the Wolfpack boxing team had a very successful season. The Pack boxers finished third in the N.C.A.A. Championships with a champion in the 147 lb. class and a runnerup in the 132 lb. class.

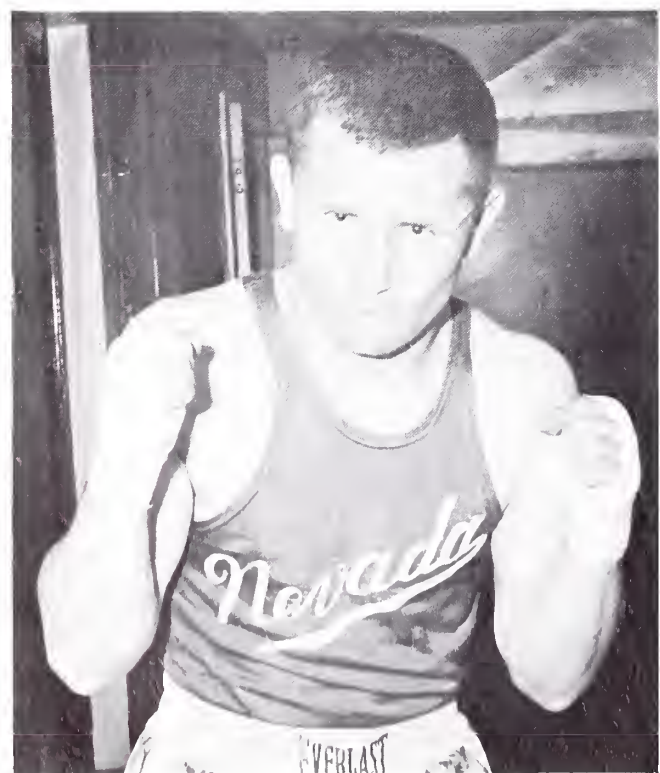

Coach Jimmie Olivias had, in 1960, his most successful year as boxing mentor. Along with expertly handling his men, Coach Olivias served as a powerful inspiration to them all.

Joe Bliss
ALL-AMERICAN

Joe Bliss, 1959 N.C.A.A. 139 lb. champion and runnerup in 1958 and 1960, has been a great asset to boxing at Nevada as well as throughout the collegiate ranks. Twice voted to the All-American boxing team, Joe climaxed his collegiate career by winning the DeWitt Portal Memorial Trophy for "the boxer who exemplifies the spirit of collegiate boxing in skill" at the 1960 N.C.A.A. Championships.

Mills Lane
N.C.A.A 147 lb. Champion

Sophomore Mills Lane brought added honor to Nevada by not only winning the N.C.A.A. 147 lb. championship, but by also being awarded the coveted John S. LaRowe Trophy for "the athlete whose sportsmanship, skill and conduct perpetuate the finest attributes in collegiate boxing."

The Race For The Kinnear Trophy

As the intramural season draws to a close, the battle for athletic supremacy is again a two house race. The final event, baseball, will determine whether the coveted Kinnear Trophy will rest in the hands of the Taus or the Snakes for the year 1960-61.

Skiing

The 1960 season marks Coach Chelton Leonard's seventh year as head ski coach at Nevada. Along with his ski team duties this season, Coach Leonard also served as chief gatekeeper of the Alpine Race Committee for the 1960 Winter Olympics which were held at Squaw Valley.

The Nevada rifle team had a fine season in 1959 and 1960. The marksmen finished second in the local area Sagebrush League, and fifth in both the Intercollegiate Sectional Smallbore Match and in the University of Nevada Invitational Meet. Top shooter for the Wolfpack was John Hunter of Reno.

Baseball

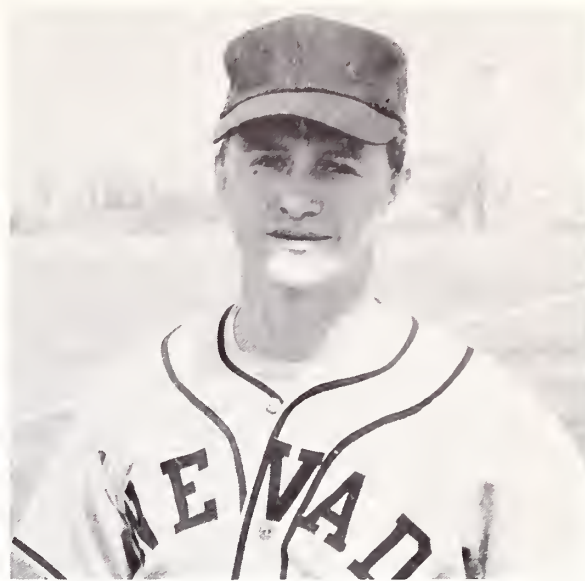

The baseball picture at Nevada is beginning to appear much brighter. A record turn-out of candidates for the squad made it possible for the organization of a Freshman team which augmented the varsity nine. The completion of the Clark Field Diamond marked the first time in history a varsity game was played on the Nevada campus.

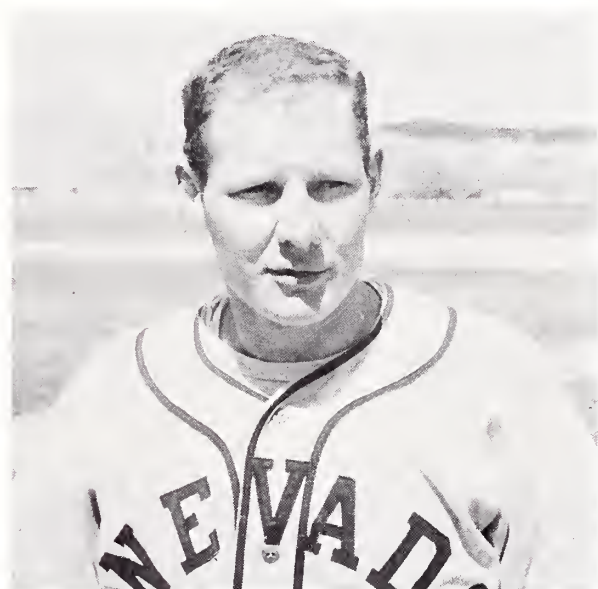

Although Coach Jake Lawlor has stepped up to the post of Director of Athletics, he has remained on the active coaching staff as baseball mentor. Along with his assistants, Jack Spencer and John Borda, Coach Lawlor fielded a strong aggressive ball club, which should gain strength as the season progresses.

The start of the 100 yd. dash; perhaps the most exciting of all events. In this picture, staff photographer Richard Morris has truly caught the atmosphere of the start, as only one foot is touching the cinders.

Track

The 1960 track season should prove to be one of the most successful in Nevada history. Coach Dick Dankworth's charges are strong in all departments: Strunk, Winchell and Ritchie in the dashes; Challendar and Hunt in the hurdles; Lommori and Cook in the weights; and Eberle in the distance events.

Band Highlights of 1959-60

The 1959-60 University of Nevada Band saw the beginning of a new era with the appointment of a new director of bands, Dr. John Carrico previously of Texas Western.

A full fledged season of half-time shows, with the inauguration of a "company front" marching formation, was presented at Wolfpack games at home and at Sacramento. A busy year of activities included: entertaining Winter Olympic high school band students from all over California and Nevada, hosting the Western Zone, Nevada Music Educators Assn. high school band festival, presenting a widely praised concert of contemporary music for the symphonic band, and climaxing this eventful year by moving into their new Band Rehearsal Hall in the new Fine Arts Building.

Another well-earned trophy is claimed by a happy winner.

The announcement of the best sorority float was received with varying emotions.

Delta Delta Delta "copped" the best sorority skit trophy with their homecoming advice to the alumni to "Get Back in the Swim."

Winning Skits

The Alpha Tau Omegas played their way into the judges hearts with their jazzy rendition of "Take Me Back to Dixie."

Gamma Phi Beta sang and danced a clever skit entitled "Kitten on the Keys."

Modern jazz music accompanied the dramatic Phi Sigma Kappa's "A Foggy Day."

Kappa Alpha Theta lured everyone in the mood for a "Kool Homecoming" in the Klondike.

A universal homecoming was portrayed by Pi Beta Phi as they took us on a trip "Around the World."

The Sigma Nu's invited the audience to tiptoe through the tombstones with them during their "Monster Rally."

Artemisia-Manzanita Association pleased everyone with the precision of their beautiful court jesters.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon hilariously presened "This Is Your Life!"

Theta Chi entertained the audience with a genuine Russian folk dance.

Lambda Chi Alpha's version of "The Cremaion of Sam McGee."

Kappa Alpha Theta says, "Have Gator, Will Travel", as their colorful little train, "Casey, Jr.", brought home the winning trophy.

Captain Hook's pirate ship with a movable mast, caught the crowds attention; it slipped narrowly under the Reno Arch, cinching the trophy for Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

"Paddle the Gators" was the theme for Pi Beta Phi's riverboat.

Pinocchio waves a greeting to everyone from Gamma Phi Beta and assures us that he "Nose We'll Win" the game.

Tri Delts pretty blond mermaids show us how easy it is to "Swamp the Gators."

Phi Sigma Kappa says, "Keep Fighting Nevada", and win the all important game.

The Sigma Nu's gay Mr. Toad, seated high on his bright red satin seat, predicted we would, "Toadal Em Out."

Lambda Chi Alpha, with their rocket ship, showed our "Alumni in Progress."

We never found out what it was that Sigma Phi Epsilon was "Building for Tomorrow."

"Ride on Alums" was the theme of Alpha Tau Omega's old-fashioned horse-drawn trolley.

A "Welcome to the Hill" was extended by the Artemesia-Manzanita Association.

That's what I call precision.

A deserving queen walks beneath the traditional Sabre Guard.

The annual Messiah disappointed no one in its excellence.

DECEMBER

The main attraction — the model or the clothes?

All that and clothes too?

This well-known quartet sang at numerous events during the year.

The Sierra Singers sang a number of Christmas Carols.

"Twas the night before Christmas and all through the pad" . . . a la beatnik version.

I bet you tell that to every girl.

A quiet pause between sips of champagne.

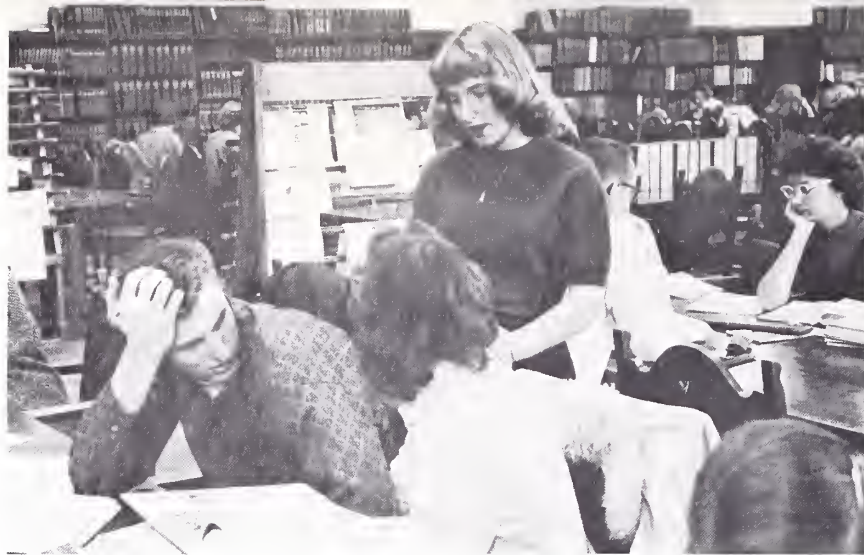

An inbetween-dance chat in a cozy corner.

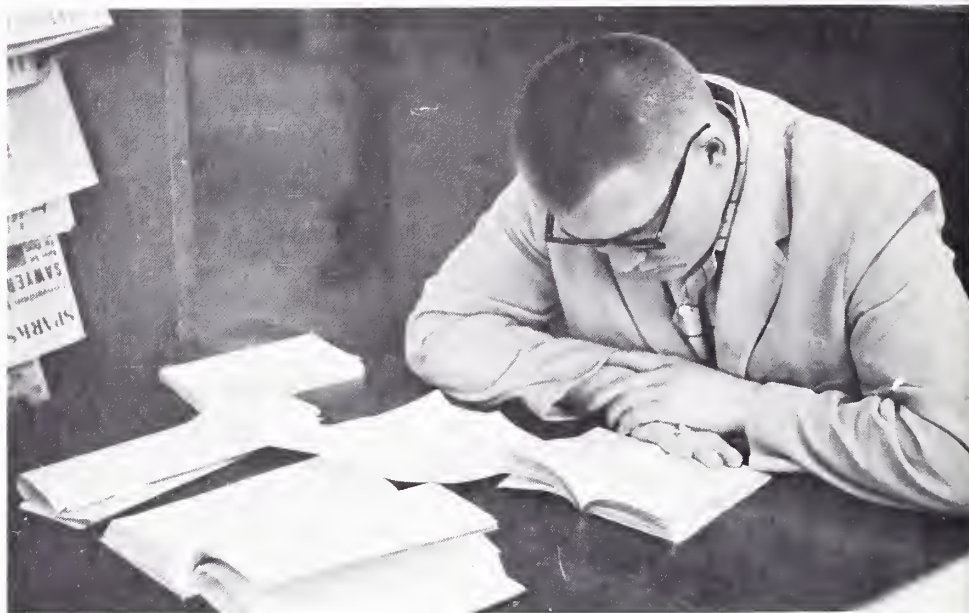

Oh-Oh, Here comes that guy to check our I.D.'s again.

All you have to do is develop a cold just before the test and write all the answers down on kleenex.

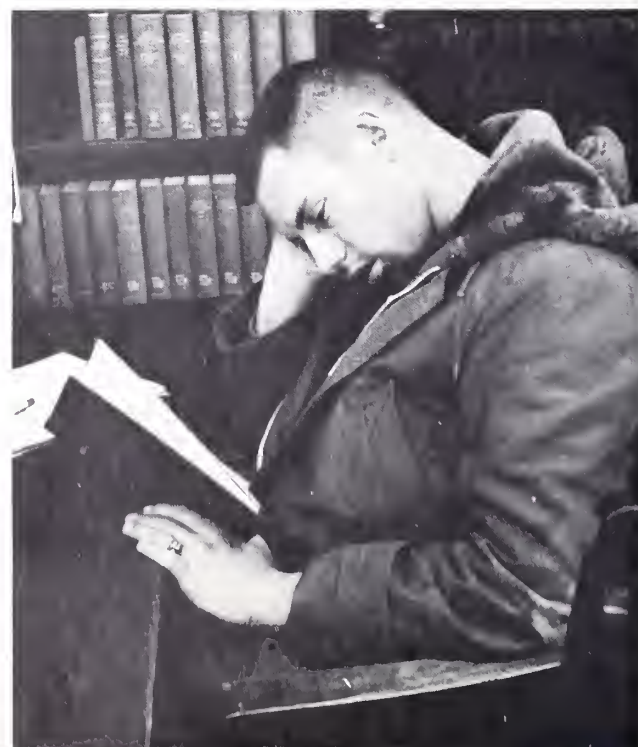

Will wonders never cease? Even the Sage-brush Editor studies!

Oh well, one more F won't matter too much.

And here is an example of a studious student, better known as an average raiser.

The R.O.T.C. test was easy—that is if you had a cheat sheet or found out the answers beforehand.

After finals, the best way to relieve tension was a game.

My name is Flower.

Honestly—how did your gum get in there?

He's got the best right hook of anyone on the boxing team.

The olympic symbol greets visitors from Sigma Alpha Epsilon.

Olympic rings blend together on Gamma Phi Beta's huge flag.

Covered with plastic, a chubby white snowman skies a welcome across the Phi Beta Phi roof.

Lambda Chi Alpha pictures a peaceful welcome to all.

Kappa Alpha Theta sends a good luck wish to the competing teams.

Manzanita Hall displays one of the longest signs proclaiming "Preserve world peace through Olympic games."

A bright welcome from Phi Sigma Kappa.

Sportsmen from all over the world enjoy the superb facilities offered by Newt Crumley's Holiday Hotel, the Sports Center of the West.
 There's wonderful pheasant shooting from September to April on the Holiday's private, 1,000-acre preserve . . . the Holiday's unique sports desk will arrange hunting and fishing anywhere in the world . . . the Holiday sponsors the annual star-studded Mug Hunt, Reno's major golf tourney . . .
 and there's a direct sports wire and a huge scoreboard in the Sports Arena, where you can always find the latest scores and sports information.

INGREDIENTS
FOR A FRIENDSHIP CAKE.

One part — NEVADA PEOPLE — making a cake or making progress depends on the proper blending of all ingredients. To be successful, you must have the assistance of happy, satisfied employees, because they are the people you meet every day while shopping at Sewell's.

Mix one part — SEWELL'S STORES — Over the years, Sewell's has modernized and added the latest equipment. Today, for your shopping convenience, Sewell's is one of the largest and most modern supermarkets in the West. Add — "NAME BRAND PRODUCTS" — A successful grocery business is based on giving people savings on nationally advertised brand merchandise.

SECRET SPICE PORTION — At Sewell's you will find selection and quality at prices as low, if not lower, than other so-called advertised specials.

Stir-in one part — CONVENIENT LOCATIONS — For any business to progress it must be located in easy to reach areas. There are now twin Sewell's in Reno to serve you. Each has a large and uncomplicated parking area, and Sewell's Blue Ribbon Boys tote your packages for you.

Add one large pinch of — NEVADA HOSPITALITY — This portion is served daily at Sewell's. A friendly hello or advice on how to stretch that budget to include a steak for the unexpected guest.

Won't you take home YOUR portion of Sewell's Friendship Cake today?

YOUR HOME TOWN GROCER

Sincerely
SEWELL'S
